If the claimant is an individual, the claim must be signed by the claimant and/or claimant's attorney. A secured party with a duly perfected interest or any successor in interest to such secured party who does not receive notice of intent to forfeit such interest pursuant to T.C.A. §40-33-204(b)(3), need not file a claim to preserve any right such party may have to such property. Upon receiving proof of a security interest, no cost bond or other pleadings need be filed by the secured party or successor in interest in order to protect its interest in the seized property or to assert a claim to the property as provided in T.C.A. §40-33-206. - (8) Counsel cannot withdraw except upon motion granted by the administrative judge.
- (9) Out-of-state counsel shall comply with T.C.A. §23-3-103(a) and Supreme Court Rule 19, except that the affidavit referred to in Supreme Court Rule 19 shall be filed with the Legal Division and approved by the administrative judge.

1340-2-2-.09 SETTLEMENT.

- (1) Settlements are encouraged. After a timely valid claim has been filed, the claimant may enter into a written settlement agreement with either the department or the seizing agency. All settlements are subject to approval by the department. If a claim is filed timely with a settlement agreement, costs may be reduced.
 - (a) A settlement agreement shall reflect the terms of the settlement on a form provided by the Legal Division, if available. It must be signed by the claimant and claimant's counsel and the designated authority of the seizing agency or the department.

- (b) The commissioner may enter a final order of settlement that incorporates the settlement agreement. The final order shall be filed with the Legal Division and served on the claimant, and the seizing agency.
 - (c) Upon entry of a final order of settlement and upon the parties' compliance with its terms, the seized property shall be released to the claimant or forfeited to the state for disposition under the Act.
 - (d) The final order of settlement may provide that the failure of a claimant to comply with the terms of the order may result in the forfeiture of the seized property to the state subject to the disposition of any other timely, valid claim.
 - (e) The seizing agency shall not release any property until it has received a final order.
- (2) The administrative judge shall not, in any way, interfere in any settlement negotiations or render advice to either party at the hearing.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-301(b), 4-5-305, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.10 MOTIONS.

- (1) Scope.
 - (a) This rule applies to all motions in a contested case proceeding. Motions in a contested case before the administrative judge shall be filed with the APD with a copy certified to the Legal Division and other parties. All other motions shall be filed with the Legal Division with a copy certified to the other parties.
 - (b) Parties to a contested case proceeding are encouraged to resolve matters on an informal basis; however, if efforts at informal resolutions fail, any party may request relief in the form of a motion. Motions shall state why the motion should be granted and the grounds upon which movant relies. Each motion which is based on a legal issue shall be accompanied by a memorandum of law. Failure to submit a memorandum in support of a motion will result in the striking of a motion.
 - (c) Parties to a contested case proceeding should bring matters to the attention of the administrative judge and opposing parties before a hearing on the merits in order to avoid delay at the hearing. Certain motions, set out in part (3)(b) of this rule, must be made at a particular time. If there is inadequate prior notice of a motion, then the administrative judge shall grant a continuance to the non-moving party if to proceed would prejudice the non-movant's case.
- (2) Rulings and Interlocutory Appeals.
 - (a) All decisions on motions shall be made by the administrative judge and shall be reviewable on interlocutory appeal to the commissioner.
 - (b) Interlocutory appeals to the commissioner shall be governed by the standards of Rules 9 and 10, the Tennessee Rules of Appellate Procedure, which require first resort to the administrative judge for approval of the appeal. Application to the Commissioner is allowed if approved by the administrative judge under Rule 9 standards or if appropriate under the standards of Rule 10. An application to the commissioner shall state why an interlocutory appeal should be granted, how the administrative judge erred, and what law and facts are relevant. A memorandum of facts and law shall accompany each interlocutory appeal to the commissioner.
 - (c) This rule does not preclude the administrative judge from convening a hearing on motions or converting a prehearing conference to a hearing at any time pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-306(b) to consider any question of law.
- (3) Time Limits.
 - (a) Each party may file a written response to any motion within seven (7) days of the date the motion was filed. Motions shall be submitted for disposition after responses are filed or after the expiration of time for filing such response, unless oral argument is granted.
 - (b) Certain motions shall be made in writing at least ten (10) days prior to a hearing on the merits. These motions are: motions to suppress evidence for any reason, all discovery motions, and motions for the testimony of a toxicologist. Failure to file a motion timely will result in the striking of the motion.
- (4) Oral Argument.

- (a) A party may request oral argument on a motion by stating in the caption of a motion underneath the docket number: “Oral Argument Requested.” Oral argument may be unnecessary and will be granted within the discretion of the administrative judge. If oral argument is requested, the motion may be argued electronically.
- (5) Affidavits; Briefs and Supporting Statements.
 - (a) Motions and responses thereto shall be accompanied by all supporting affidavits and briefs or supporting statements. All motions and responses thereto shall be supported by affidavits for facts relied upon which are not of record or which are not the subject of official notice. Affidavits shall set forth only facts which are admissible in evidence under T.C.A. §4-5-313, and to which the affiants are competent to testify.
 - (b) In the discretion of the administrative judge, a party may be required to submit additional briefs or supporting statements pursuant to a schedule established by the administrative judge.
- (6) Disposition of Motions; Drafting the Order.
 - (a) The administrative judge shall render a decision on the motion by issuing either a written order or a verbal ruling on the record. The administrative judge may instruct the prevailing party to prepare and submit an order.
 - (b) The administrative judge shall file the order in the Administrative Procedures Division and serve the order upon the parties and file it with the Legal Division.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, §4-5-301(b), 4-5-308, 4-5-312, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 3-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.11 SERVICE OF NOTICE OF HEARING.

- (1) At a reasonable time prior to a hearing, a “Notice of Hearing” shall be filed by the Legal Division and served on all parties, per Rule 1340-2-2-.03(4).
- (2) In serving a “Notice of Hearing,” the Legal Division shall rely upon the addresses of record as given by a claimant or by claimant’s counsel. Proof of service per Rule 1340-2-2-.03(4) to the addresses of record shall establish a rebuttable presumption that claimant or claimant’s counsel received notice of the hearing date.
- (3) Notice of hearing for a second or subsequent setting of the hearing will be by certified mail, return receipt requested. The return receipt card may be filed with the Legal Division and serve as a record of notification.
- (4) All claims filed against a specific seized property shall be consolidated for a single hearing.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-307, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.12 CONTINUANCES.

- (1) Continuances may be granted upon good cause shown at any stage of the contested case. The need for a continuance shall be brought to the attention of all parties and the administrative judge as soon as practicable.

- (2) If rulings on preliminary motions at a hearing on the merits cause prejudice to a party who received inadequate notice of the motion prior to the date of the hearing, then a continuance shall be granted.
- (3) Any case may be continued by mutual consent of the parties.
- (4) A continuance shall be granted rather than a default or dismissal for failure to appear at the first setting of a case.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-301(b), 4-5-308, 4-5-312, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and §53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.13 DISCOVERY.

- (1) Parties are encouraged to conduct discovery informally, in order to avoid undue expense and delay in the resolution of the contested case proceeding. When such attempts have failed, or where the complexity of the case is such that informal discovery is not practicable, discovery may be guided by reference as set out at Rule 1340-2-2-.01(3).
- (2) Discovery shall be completed at least ten (10) days prior to a hearing on the merits. Upon motion of a party or the administrative judge, the administrative judge may order that the discovery be completed by a date certain.
- (3) Any motion to compel discovery, motion to quash, motion for protective order, motion to enlarge the permitted number of interrogatories, or other discovery-related motion, shall:
 - (a) quote verbatim the interrogatory, request, question, or subpoena at issue, or be accompanied by a copy of the interrogatory, request, subpoena, or excerpt of a deposition which shows the question and objection or response, if applicable;
 - (b) state the reason or reasons supporting the motion, including a memorandum applying law to facts; and
 - (c) be accompanied by a statement certifying that the movant has made a good faith effort to resolve by agreement the issues raised and that agreement has not been achieved. Such effort shall be set forth with particularity in the statement.
- (4) Other than as provided in subsection (3) above, discovery materials need not be filed with the Legal Division, but must be served on opposing counsel.
- (5) Depositions. There shall be at least ten (10) working days notice given before the taking of a deposition, unless otherwise agreed by the parties. If a motion for a protective order is filed with the Legal Division before the deposition takes place, then the deposition is stayed automatically until the motion is stricken or an order on the motion becomes final. An order by an administrative judge allowing a deposition to go forward may be appealed interlocutory in the manner prescribed by Rule 1340-2-2-.10(2) within ten (10) days of the entry of the order.
- (6) Interrogatories. No party shall serve on any other party more than thirty (30) single question interrogatories, including subparts, without leave of the administrative judge. The answering party shall verify the answers immediately following the answer to the last interrogatory.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-311, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.14 SUBPOENAS.

- (1) The administrative judge at the request of any party shall issue signed subpoenas in blank in accordance with the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure, except that service in contested cases may be by certified return receipt mail in addition to the means of service provided by the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure. Parties shall complete and serve their own subpoenas.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-311, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq.

1340-2-2-.15 BURDEN OF PROOF.

- (1) The “burden of proof” refers to the duty of a party to present evidence on and to show, by a preponderance of the evidence, that an allegation of fact is true or that an issue should be resolved in favor of that party.
- (2) A “preponderance of the evidence” means the greater weight of the evidence or that, according to the evidence, the conclusion sought by the party with the burden of proof is the more probable conclusion.
- (3) The claimant has the burden of proof as to standing, as to any motions or other pleadings advanced by the claimant, and as to any matter set forth in the Act whereby the burden of proof is placed on the claimant. Claimant’s burden of proof at a contested case hearing includes proving the requisites of T.C.A. §53-11-201(f)(1) (excluding T.C.A. §53-11-201(f)(1)(B)) and any alleged exception from forfeiture.
- (4) The department has the burden of proof as to the illegal use of the seized property pursuant to the Act and as to any motions or other pleadings advanced by the department.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.16 ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

- (1) The order of proceedings for the hearing of contested cases is as follows:
 - (a) Prior to a hearing, the administrative judge may confer with the parties to discuss the order of proceedings, admissibility of evidence, number of witnesses and other matters, provided, however, that the administrative judge shall not act as an advocate in any contested case.
 - (b) Hearing is called to order by the administrative judge.
 - (c) The parties, their counsel and the administrative judge introduce themselves for the record. If necessary, the administrative judge gives a brief statement about the nature of the proceedings and the making of legal rulings.
 - (d) The administrative judge states what documents the record contains.
 - (e) The witnesses are sworn.
 - (f) The administrative judge asks the parties if they call for the exclusion of witnesses from the hearing under “the Rule.” If so, the excluded witnesses are instructed not to discuss the case during the pendency of the proceeding. Notwithstanding the exclusion of witnesses, individual parties will be permitted to stay in the hearing room. The seizing agency or any party that is a corporation or other artificial person may have one appropriate individual, other than counsel, who may also be a witness, remain in the hearing room as its representative.

- (g) Any preliminary motions, stipulations, or agreed orders are entertained.
 - 1. Motions that may be heard at this time include, but are not limited to, a motion to suppress filed at least ten (10) days prior to the date of the hearing, a motion to depauperize a claimant, and a motion to strike a claim upon the claimant's lack of standing, and a motion to strike a claim pursuant to T.C.A. §53-11-201(f)(1)(A).
 - 2. The administrative judge shall rule on a motion to suppress before the contested case proceeds further. If any part of a motion to suppress is granted, the department shall have a short recess to reevaluate its case and to decide whether to proceed.
 - 3. The administrative judge shall rule on a motion to strike a claim for lack of standing and a motion to depauperize a claimant before the contested case proceeds further. If the motion to strike is granted, then claimant's claim shall be dismissed and the property forfeited to the state. If a motion to depauperize is granted, and if the administrative judge finds that the claimant has committed perjury, then the claim may be dismissed; otherwise, the claimant shall be given ten (10) days within which to provide the cost bond. The hearing will then be reset contingent upon a timely cost bond being filed.
- (h) The parties make opening statements.
- (i) The Legal Division calls its witnesses and questioning proceeds as follows:
 - 1. Division questions.
 - 2. Claimant cross-examines.
 - 3. Division redirects.
 - 4. Claimant re-cross-examines.
 - 5. Division continues with its witnesses until it concludes its case.
- (j) Claimant may move to dismiss the Department's case for failure to carry its burden of proof.
- (k) Claimant proceeds with the case, following the above pattern with the parties switched, until claimant's case is concluded.
- (l) Questioning proceeds as long as is necessary to provide all pertinent testimony by all parties.
- (m) Claimant and the Division shall be allowed to call appropriate rebuttal and rejoinder witnesses with the examination proceeding as set forth in paragraph (i). Rebuttal and rejoinder witness may have heard the testimony of the witness to be rebutted or rejoined, in accordance with Tennessee Rule of Evidence 615.
- (n) Closing arguments are allowed all parties.

- (o) If the commissioner is hearing the case, then the parties are informed that a Final Order will be written and sent to the parties, with appeal rights explained. If an administrative judge hears the case, the parties are informed that an Initial Order will be written and sent to the parties, with appeal rights explained. Either the commissioner or the administrative judge may make an oral ruling at the conclusion of the contested case proceeding; however, an oral ruling shall be placed into appropriate written form as an order and sent to the parties, with appeal rights explained.
- (2) Subparagraph (1) of this rule is intended to be a general outline as to the conduct of a contested case proceeding and it is not intended that a departure from the literal form or substance of this outline, in order to expedite or ensure fairness of proceedings, would be in violation of this rule. In all cases preliminary motions on suppression, standing and motion to strike pursuant to T.C.A. §53-11-201(f)(1)(A) shall be decided before a hearing proceeds.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-301(b), 4-5-312, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq. Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

1340-2-2-.17 DEFAULT AND UNCONTESTED PROCEEDINGS.

- (1) Default. A motion for default may be in writing or oral.
 - (a) The failure of a party to attend or to participate in a prehearing conference, a party's non-attendance at a second setting of a hearing on the merits in a case or a party's non-attendance at another stage of contested case proceedings after notice thereof are each causes for holding such party in default pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-309.
 - (b) The failure of a party to comply with any lawful order of the administrative judge that is necessary to maintain the orderly conduct of a hearing may be deemed a failure to participate in a stage of a contested case and be cause for a holding of default.
 - (c) In any situation set out in parts (a) and (b) of this rule, a motion may be made to hold the absent party in default and to enter an initial default order or to continue on an uncontested basis.
 - (d) No default shall be entered against a claimant for failure to attend except upon proof, by the filing of the return receipt card, that the Legal Division has given notice of a hearing per Rule 1340-2-2-.11(3).
 - (e) Upon default by a party, an administrative judge may enter either an initial default order or an order for an uncontested proceeding. An order under this part must be in writing, with reasons given and appeal rights stated. Uncontested proceedings may go forward at the time of default. These orders must subsequently be filed with the Legal Division.
 - (f) The defaulting party, no later than ten (10) days after service of an order may file a motion for reconsideration under T.C.A. §4-5-317, requesting that the default be set aside for good cause shown, and stating the grounds relied upon. The administrative judge may make any order in regard to such motion as is appropriate, pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-317. These orders by an administrative judge are reviewable by the commissioner.
 - (g) No party shall be required by the administrative judge to call or inquire as to the whereabouts of a missing party.
- (2) Effect of Default.

- (a) Upon a default by the agency, a claimant's claim shall be granted by initial default order or, if the claimant requests, the claimant may proceed uncontested.
- (b) Upon a default by a claimant, a claimant's claim shall be stricken by initial default order or, if the agency requests, the agency may proceed uncontested.
- (3) Uncontested Proceeding. When the matter is tried as uncontested, the party having the burden of proof must establish its case by a preponderance of the evidence.

Authority: T.C.A. §§4-3-2009, 4-5-219, 4-5-309, 40-33-201, et seq., as amended, and 53-11-201, et seq.
Administrative History: Original rule filed December 5, 1994; effective February 18, 1995.

 - (a) Fifth Amendment. In accord with state and Federal law:
 - 1. A person who asserts the Fifth Amendment right against self incrimination in response to any discovery or at a hearing shall personally assert that right.
 - 2. If a claimant invokes the Fifth Amendment, then the inference is that the response called for is adverse to the claimant's case. This inference may be taken by an administrative judge and may be used to support the agency's burden of proof in accordance with applicable law.
 - (b) Informant's Privilege. The name of a confidential informant shall not be revealed, provided, however, that in the event the name of a confidential informant is ordered revealed, the Department may, in its discretion, either dismiss its case or appeal such order.
- (2) The Rule. In all contested cases, the testimony of witnesses shall be taken in open hearings. Under the rule, witnesses may be excluded prior to their testimony, except that a representative of the seizing agency or business entity may sit with counsel as provided in Rule 1340-2-2-.16(1)(f).
- (3) Admissibility. The standard for admissibility of evidence is set forth at T.C.A. §4-5-313. These proceedings are not governed exclusively by the Tennessee Rules of Evidence.

 - (a) If the claimant objects to the introduction of a toxicologist report without the testimony of the toxicologist, the claimant may request that a toxicologist testify at the hearing.
 - (b) The department shall be granted a continuance, in the event of such request, to subpoena the toxicologist, and the hearing shall be reset to allow introduction of the toxicologist's testimony and report.
 - (c) Failure to request a toxicologist within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing constitutes a waiver.

- (5) Statements against interest of the claimant by persons in possession of seized property are relevant and may be admitted into evidence pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-313.
- (6) Affidavits shall be filed pursuant to T.C.A. §4-5-313.
- (7) A final order by the Commissioner on an issue that has not been reversed, remanded, or significantly modified by a court, or that has been affirmed by a court, establishes legal precedent that administrative judges shall follow in cases under the Act.
- (8) A Certified Driving Record shall be admissible in these hearings without requiring the State to produce the keeper of the records.
 - (a) If the claimant objects to the introduction of a Certified Driving Record without the testimony of the keeper of the records, the claimant may request that the keeper of the records testify at the hearing.
 - (b) The Department shall be granted a continuance, in the event of such request, to subpoena the records, and the hearing shall be reset to allow introduction of the testimony of the keeper of the records and the reports.
 - (c) Failure to request the appearance of the keeper of the records within ten (10) days of the hearing constitutes a waiver.
- (9) Any Field Test for alcohol and controlled substances and breath alcohol tests shall be admissible in these hearings to meet the preponderance of the evidence without requiring the State to produce the person who administered the Field Test.

 - (b) The Department shall be granted a continuance, in the event of such request, to subpoena those who administered the tests, and the hearing shall be reset to allow introduction of the testimony of those who administered the tests.
 - (c) Failure to request the appearance of those who administered the tests within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing constitutes a waiver.

- (2) In deciding whether to grant a petition to intervene, the following factors shall be considered:
 - (a) Whether the petitioner asserts an interest relating to the case, whether the petitioner is so situated that the disposition of the case may as a practical matter impair or impede petitioner's ability to protect that interest;
 - (b) Whether the petitioner's assertion of interest and the main case have a question of law or fact in common;
 - (c) Whether petitioner's interests are adequately represented;
 - (d) Whether admittance of a new party will render the hearing unmanageable or interfere with the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.
- (3) In deciding a petition to intervene, the administrative judge may impose conditions upon the intervenor's participation in the proceedings as set forth at T.C.A. §4-5-310(c).

- (c) Any petition for reconsideration shall include the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. It shall be accompanied by a memorandum applying law to facts and stating why the petition should be granted. Failure to submit such a memorandum will result in the striking of a petition.

Documents that are unavailable at the time the petition is filed shall be described in as much detail as is possible and shall be provided at a later time, should a hearing be granted, but not later than three (3) working days prior to any hearing on the petition.

- (d) Either the agency or the claimant may move either the administrative judge, the commissioner, or the Chancery Court of Davidson County for relief from the automatic stay. Moreover, the agency and the claimant may agree to dissolve the automatic stay.
- (e) Other Stays. If a petition for a stay is filed on any other issue, it shall be filed within seven (7) days after entry of an initial or final order, unless otherwise provided by statute or stated in the initial or final order.
- (f) Any petition for a stay shall include the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. It shall be accompanied by a memorandum applying law to facts and stating why the petition should be granted. Failure to submit such a memorandum will result in the striking of a petition.
